The Term "Fast Food" elicits Very Specific Expectations: ordering Food Over the Counter, Fast Delivery Time and a Low Price. While this is exactly what Fast Food is meant to be, it's not ticking the Box for Everyone, especially for Health-Conscious Diners.

There is a Growing Demand for Healthier Fast Food where People are willing to wait a Little Longer for the Preparation and fork out a Bit More Money for a Healthier Meal.... The Ordering Experience remains the Same, you place Orders at the Counter, but the wait time is Slightly Longer, usually no more than an Extra Five Minutes. The Biggest Difference lies in the Quality of the Ingredients.
